 Annual Reproductive Health
Medical Symposium

California Family Health Council, Inc.

The California Family Health Council (CFHC) is a non-profit organization working to improve the health for California families by increasing access to family planning, improving reproductive health care and ensuring access to health services. CFHC also develops effective solutions to health care challenges, conducts cutting edge contraceptive research and serves to inform the public, health professionals and policy makers about health issues.

This year, the 22nd annual Reproductive Health Medical Symposium coincides with National Women's Health Week and has a special theme, "Promoting Better Health for Women in the 21st Century." For 21 years, this conference has provided clinicians and health educators an opportunity to access the most current information on medical reproductive health care.

Symposium Objectives

Upon completion of the Reproductive Health Medical Symposium, participants will be able to:

- Identify polycystic ovary syndrome (PCOS)
- Describe the difference between dysfunctional uterine bleeding (DUB) & abnormal uterine bleeding
- Define important causes of infertility and the most successful approaches to assist the infertile couple in achieving pregnancy
- Discuss new advancements and innovations in contraception
- Describe the latest CDC guidelines for STDs
- Understand the most recent information on Bethesda III
- Develop strategies to improve communication skills with teen clients
